

Project Goals

Written by Jasper Diephuis
Thursday, 15 April 2010 07:16

The primary goals of the study project are briefly summarized in the paragraph below.

To gain knowledge of another country; Concerning culture, demographics, the economy and politics, but also in the field of electrical engineering. The quality and implementation of research and education and the strengths and weaknesses compared to the Netherlands.

- To view the work of an electrical engineer in a foreign country from a different perspective.
- To make contact with foreign and domestic companies.
- To expand the electrical engineering knowledge of the participants.